The Thomason Street bike lane in Midland is nearing completion. This is a 1.5 mile (3 mile out and back) add to my Tradewinds, Beal Park route. Thank you to the City of Midland!

“Little” announcement 🤗.

So we spend our Wednesday's and Thursday's on adult racing. We would like to expand this commitment to our youth. Building educated riders starts with our young riders. One thing I know is that kids love to ride bikes. We want to give our youth a chance to ride as a group in a safe and friendly environment.

Bring your young rider out next Tuesday, July 5th @6:30 pm. Location will be 4800 Spring Meadow Lane. This is a short loop and we will have volunteers watching for traffic, which is very minimal. ALL riders MUST wear a helmet. All are welcome. Our hope is to have a mini podium for age groups that participate to give them that special feeling of what racing is all about.

Afterwards, we will provide hotdogs for each participant 🌭. We will have Sno 🍦 as well. For more information, please DM me. Please bring plenty of water for your little rider. ❤️ Let's share our love for riding with the ones that matter most.

MOUNTAIN BIKING – Steve Mitchell

Our local trails are in pretty good shape right now. However, they can always use some more attention. For the most part its just cleaning the trails of big rocks, raking sand out of corners, and cutting back vegetation. We will be scheduling some workdays at all the parks over the next few months. If you are a member that uses the trails, please participate. In the meantime, next time you go for a ride at one of the parks, consider bringing a rake, hoe, or loppers and work for 30 minutes on a section of trail that needs attention.

MIDLAND TRAIL PARK

The park finally received some much-needed rain a couple weeks ago. The rain in Midland was significant enough to create some flooding in the draw that runs through the park. The good news is that the lake filled back up and the trails were packed down. We also had our first opportunity to see if the bridge constructed on the north side of the park would hold up to the fast-moving water and debris funneling through the draw. The bridge survived although a lot of debris piled up against the north side. Flatland Energy Services graciously provided an excavator to remove the debris free of charge.

While we had the excavator at the park, we also built the dirt hill that will be used for the starting point of the jump line. Salazar services brought out a water truck and sprayed down the dirt while the excavator built and packed the new hill. Thanks to Abel Salazar with Salazar Services and Landon Hamer with Flatland Energy Services for contributing their time and equipment to these projects at no cost to the PBBA.
